CHOOSING A COURSE OF STUDY

In the Application Form, the students are required to indicate at least three courses, in the order of preference, which they would like to pursue in Indian educational institutions.

Students are also required to indicate at least three Universities/Institution of Higher Learning, in the order of preference, at which they would like to study.

A list of participating Universities (total 189) is included at Appendix-5 to the Scholarship Application Form.

When considering a course, students must ensure that they possess requisite qualifications for the course which they choose to study.

Students must also ensure that the chosen course of study is a structured course of study at the University of their preference.

For selecting the course of study or the University, students may refer to the 'Universities Handbook of India' available at the Embassy of India in Jakarta or browse the official website of the concerned University.

Students may also apprise themselves of the requirements expected to be fulfilled by the Foreign Students at the concerned University.

Doctoral and Post-graduate (including Masters) applicants should generally choose an area consistent with previous studies they have completed.

It may be noted that Indian Universities/educational institutions are autonomous and independent and hence have their own eligibility criteria. Forwarding of applications is thus not a guarantee of admission. Final acceptance is up to the University concerned. A scholarship is awarded only when admission is confirmed by the concerned University/ICCR.

NOTE ON RESTRICTIONS ON ICCR SCHOLARSHIPS:

- There will be no scholarship awarded for medicine (MBBS), dentistry (BDS), nursing and other courses related to medicine during 2012-13.
